NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR DENOUNCES BOSS RULE
New York, May 28.--Gov. John Franklin Fort of New Jersey was heartily cheered last night at the Freeport Auditorium in Newark, where he spoke at the dollar dinner of the New Idea Republicans. The Governor voiced new idea sentiments, denouncing boss rule, and shaking off the last semblance of the Republican "regularity" that elected him a year and a half ago.

At the same feast Assemblyman William Parmenter Martin of Essex County was hailed as the next candidate for Governor. Everett Colby, founder of the New Idea movement, was also cheered. The dinner was a testimonial to the Assemblymen who supported Gov. Fort's reform policies in the last session of the New Jersey Legislature.

Wets Win Out In Virginia Fight

Petersburg, Va., May 28.--After the bitterest and the hardest fought local option campaign in the history of this old city, Petersburg voted "wet" yesterday by a majority of 578 in a total of 1,792.

The result was a decisive defeat for the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, which made a most aggressive fight, and imported speakers for the temperance cause. The Business Men's Association lined up strongly with the "wets."

Women and children remained about the polls all day, singing and praying. When Wesley G. Andrews, a merchant and City Councilman, challenged the vote of the Rev. Sidney Peters, Secretary of the League, a quarrel ensued, and the former slapped the minister's face. Both were haled to the police court.

New Albany, Ind., May 28.--The Prohibition wave in Indiana was halted here on the shore of the Ohio River yesterday when according to official figures, Floyd County voted wet by 2,000 majority.
